The Free, Online “Esther Bridge Lessons”

Prior to the pandemic, and the Savannah clubhouse burning down, BRUCE THOMPSON directed a Savannah Novice game, and before the game taught a short bridge lesson.

During the pandemic, these games moved online to BBO, and Bruce began emailing short lessons to the players.

More recently, Bruce started posting these lessons to 2 FREE (and no ads) websites:

Bridge Bruce’s Way Intro Bridge Lessons

The “Esther Bridge Lessons” mainly involve instructional dialogs between Bruce, and an entirely hypothetical Grand Emerald Lifemaster with (hypothetically) 20M+ ACBL Masterpoints, named Esther Klinktoast-Houstonhousen. Esther in these dialogs vacillates between, among other things, insisting on always being called “Ms. Klinktoast-Houstonhousen”, or “Esther”, because “I am warm and caring!” If you are a new or Advancing bridge player, one or both of these websites may be of interest to you.
